Kensington has always been the best London neighborhood, our property has a long history with the Entertainment industry. We have always been synonymous with artists, bands and crew, toring all the way back to the 60’s. We have a great understanding as to what hospitality means to the touring industry, and use this knowledge to provide a seamless experience for any group, no matter the size. With the beautiful parks and gardens to one side and the lively Kensington High Street to the other, there is plenty to see and do. Here are some of our top picks from the local area.
